

The University of Cologne, Germany, invites applications for a tenured position in the Faculty of Management, Economics and Social Sciences at the Full Professor (W3) level

Full Professor (W3) in Design & Behaviour (tenured)

The University of Cologne is one of the largest universities in Germany. It conducts internationally competitive research and covers a wide range of subjects. With its six faculties and its inter-faculty centres, it offers a broad spectrum of academic disciplines and internationally outstanding profile areas. The position is based in the Faculty of Management, Economics and Social Sciences, which is consistently ranked among the top schools in research and teaching and co-hosts the Cluster of Excellence “ECONtribute: Markets & Public Policy”. The position will be integrated into the University’s “Center for Social and Economic Behavior” (C-SEB.de).

The position is available immediately or based on mutual agreement.

The research focus of candidates should be in Market Design, in Behavioural Economics or in other fields that are related to Applied Microeconomics, including Computer or Data Science, and strengthen the research activities of the “Center for Social and Economic Behavior”. An outstanding track record of research published in leading journals is expected. Successful candidates can fulfil teaching obligations in a wide range of Bachelor, Master and PhD programmes of the Faculty of Management, Economics and Social Sciences, in English or German.

The recruitment requirements according to Section 36 of the Higher Education Act of North Rhine-Westphalia (Hochschulgesetz – HG NRW) apply. The University of Cologne is committed to equal opportunities and diversity. Women are especially encouraged to apply and will be considered preferentially in accordance with the Equal Opportunities Act of North Rhine-Westphalia (Landesgleichstellungsgesetz – LGG NRW). We also expressly welcome applications from people with disabilities / special needs or of equal status.

Applications should consist of the following documents: cover letter, curriculum vitae, publication list and teaching evaluations. Applications should be submitted via the Academic Job Portal of the University of Cologne (<https://professorships.uni-koeln.de>) no later than 12.10.2020 addressing the Dean of the Faculty of Management, Economics and Social Sciences.
